Welcome message:

Translational research of medicinal plants used in traditional medicine may serve as the major source of therapeutic alternative. Drug discovery and development from medicinal plants is a challenging task, which requires expertise and experience. Newer technologies are employed to understand the chemistry, pharmacological activity and their underlying mechanisms of action of medicinal plants as a lead towards drug development from natural resources. Traditionally used Indian Medicinal plant has been explored as a potential candidate for the development of newer drug from several decades. So, our Ancestral knowledge may provide an effective alternative to combat this pandemic situation through translational research approach.

This seminar will be highlighting on several critical and contemporary issues for therapeutic evaluation leading to drug discovery & development from medicinal plants together with their scientific validation, quality evaluation and safety related aspects.

We cordially invite you all to participate in the 8th Convention of SFE-India & national seminar and explore the opportunity through dissemination of knowledge for promotion and development of medicinal plants together with the array of eminent scientists, researchers, industry professionals, traditional healthcare practitioners and technologists to make the seminar a great success.

SFE Convention -2021

Society for Ethnopharmacology (SFE)

"Globalizing local knowledge and localizing global technologies"

www.ethnopharmacology.in Society for Ethnopharmacology, India is a registered under the West Bengal Society Registration act and affiliated to the International Society for Ethnopharmacology. The society was formed in 2013 and has made its presence with different activities throughout the country, for development and promotion of medicinal plants and ethnopharmacology. The Society works on dissemination of knowledge in this area in different parts of India with the major highlights on "Globalizing local knowledge and localizing global technologies."

CSIR-Indian Institute of Chemical Biology

www.iicb.res.in

The Institute was established in 1935 as the first nonofficial center in India for biomedical research and was included within the aegis of CSIR in 1956. CSIR-IICB today is engaged in research on diseases of national importance and biological problems of global interest, employing sophisticated state-of-the-art technology in keeping with the rapid and unprecedented momentum that life science research has gained globally over the last 50 years. The scientific staff has expertise in a variety of areas including chemistry, biochemistry, cell biology, molecular biology, neurobiology and immunology which promotes productive interdisciplinary interaction. CSIR-IICB is one of the major laboratories in India which initiated, right from its inception, multidisciplinary concerted efforts for conducting basic research on infectious diseases, along with the development of technologies for the diagnosis, immunoprophylaxis, and chemotherapy of the diseases.

Highlights of the event:

Eminent academicians, scientists, researchers, technologists from universities, industries and other research organizations, traditional health practitioners will share their experiences on the following topics:

- Promotion and development from medicinal plants with special reference to 'Kalmegh'
- Translation research approach for Promotion and development from medicinal plants
- Metabolomic study - an approach towards drug discovery and development from Indian medicinal plants
- Development of immunomodulators from Medicinal plants
- Development of anti-infectives from Indian medicinal plants
- Integrative approaches for quality evaluation of Indian medicinal plants
- Safety, efficacy and quality evaluation
- Development and evaluation of Indian medicinal plants through Industry-Institute partnership.
- IP rights, patents and regulatory affairs of medicinal and aromatic plants (MAP)
- Promotion and development of Local Health Tradition in exploring drugs
- Cultivation and conservation of Rear Endangered Species of Indian medicinal plant

Targeted audience:

We welcome all the academicians, students, researchers and technologists from university, institutes and industries, health care professionals, cultivators of medicinal plants, industrialists and all other who are interested in the promotion and development of Ethnopharmacology and medicinal plant research to join this event to share their knowledge and expertise to strengthen the medicinal plant research at large. We welcome scientific presentations from the researchers from industry and academia. This year the program will be organized on site and on line - dual i.e. hybrid mode. Members of SFE-India may join the convention physically and also virtually and explore the opportunities.

Call for Abstract:

We welcome scientific presentations from the young researchers in the area of Ethnopharmacology, medicinal plants & Natural product research. After completion of the registration process, the abstracts should be submitted by e-mail as attachment at (sfeindiase@gmail.com) within November 10, 2021. The abstracts should be written by Microsoft word in ".doc" or ".docx" (250 words). No review paper will be entertained for presentation. All accepted abstracts will be published in the e-proceedings of the symposium.

Registration*:

Category	Registration amount
Delegates (SFE-India member) joining in person	Rs. 1000
Delegates (SFE-India member) joining virtually	Rs. 500
Student Delegates (SFE-India member) joining in person	Rs. 500
Student Delegates (SFE-India member) joining virtually	Rs. 300

Total number of participants in the seminar is limited & registration will be in first come first serve basis. Last date for registration and abstract submission is November 10, 2021. Registration fee is non-refundable and should be paid in DD / Cheque, drawn in favor of "Conference-SFE", payable at Kolkata, or bank transfer : A/C No: 1517010048116; Bank: Punjab National Bank, Branch: Jadavpur Vidyapith, Kolkata; IFSC Code: PUNB0151720; Registration form and payment details should be sent to the SFE India (E-mail: sfeindiase@gmail.com)*
